star features of this week's exceptional bill, including, the Long Acre Quartette, the peerless singing four; The Jossettis, marvelous risely and Lilliputian troupe from Europe; Edwin Barry & Co., in the laughable domestic farce "The Home Breaker"; Wood Pos., those sensational Irish athletes of the laughable form work: Reason. double flying ring work; Bea son, covadians; Rastus Brown, a lively colored dancer; and a particularly amusing motion picture series entitled, "A Modest Young Man."

George V. Hobart who wrote "The Boys and Betty" and "Wildfire," the latter production starring Lallian Russell for several seasons past has created a one-act comedy playlet for vaude entitled "Cherie." Clayton White and Marie Stuart, two of the versatile laugh-makers in the var are starring in Mr. Hobart's latest creation. Manager Poli has secured "Cherie" with White and Stuart and cherie" with White and Stuart and a clever supporting cast to head ine the bill next week here. This is an exceptional sketch a comp iment to the creative genius of Mr. Hobart, and its presentation by Mr. White and Miss Stuart is artistic and original. The story is a most humorous one, having to do in a way with a case of misto do in a way with a case of mistaken identity in which a charming woman of the world. (Miss Stuart) takes a race track man, (Mr. White) for the village parson. The situation arising is most ludicrous. No better vehicle could be given Mr. White and Miss Stuart and no better selection could have been made from the ranks of the profession for "Cherie." This production will be one of the most taiked of headline features of the season when it opens at Poll's next Monday afternoon.

An act direct from Europe has been engaged as the added feature next week and will be produced for the first time on any stage in this country here. Munchester Brothers present the marvel of the century Gaanda-Humanus, a wonderfully contrived mechanical figure operated by electricity, that writes, walks, does mathematical sums, rides a bloycle, drives an automobile or a four-in-hand, and in short does everything but talk, Gaanda-Humanus on the Continent gained the sobriquet of "The Mystery". The audiences witnessing this truly remarkable act is oftimes mystified as to whether they are watching a mechanical figure or a human being, until at the conclusion of the act, the figure is taken to pieces by the operators. Gaanda-Humanus should cause a sensation at Poli's next week.

porting bill next week wil include. James Harrigan, the famous tramp juggler: The Three Hanlon Brothers, comedy acrobats; J. Warren Keane, the master of sleight-of-hand: Cook & Stevens, an amusing colored tram; Hastings & Wilson, "The Lunation," and new motion, picture, fortics"; and new motion picture fea-

SMITH'S.

That old, old story, so new to present day theatregoers, "slavery days" will be realistically interpreted this evening, and to-morrow mat'nee and even-ing, by Stetson's spectacular "Uncle Tom's Cabin" company, For this sea-Tom's Cabin" company. For this season, the members of the Stetson company were selected especially for his or her adaptability to the roies essayed. The resuit has been a rarely harmonious whole, it is claimed, which has done much to add to the effectiveness of the production. The scenery, painted assecially for this revival, includes a flower there and to try the effect of a bow in another place. She even had ed especially for this revival, includes a number of handsome scenes reproduced from pictures of the localities mentioned in the book, as they were at the time when the great authoress first wrote the story, more than fifty years ago.

Max Rogers, of the Rogers Brothers, supported by Joe Kane, late star of "The Belle of New York" and other New York Casino successes, who plays the opposite role and the original New York company in his latest musical play "In Panama" will be the attraction Easter Monday evening. "In Panama" held the board at the Broadway theatre, New York for nearly two hundred nights last season. There is a certain attractiveness in "In Panama" which few musical shows contain and outside of the magnificent stage setting and the costuming and effects of the production, the hits are an added feature to all lovers of music.

Miss Ethel Barrymore has achieved a genuine triumph in her new play "Ladv Frederick." a comedy in three acts by W. Somerset Maugham, in which she will be seen on Tuesday which she will be seen on Tuesday ovening. She has recently completed a long run at the Hudson theatre in New York and appears here with the original production and company. In her new play Miss Barrymore is seen as Lady Frederick Berroles, a fascinating Irish widow of very slender means, but extravagant tastes. She has a host of admirers and the most devoted of all is young Lord Merston, several years her junior. The play concerns

Charles Frohman has provided a company of exceptional merit for Miss Barrymore's support.

The elopement of a pair of lovers by moonlight in the big musical gaiety, "A Knight for a Day," which comes Wednesday for two performances, including a special matinee, is reported to be one of the most laughable situa-tions ever seen in comic opera. The gentleman, who is the knight of laughter and song in the piece, helps his lady love, the "servant lady," get away from the first floor of the dor-mitory of a young ladies' seminary by means of a ladder after he has taken her belongings—including a rtunk, s eral packages and a parrot—to ground by the same route.

Superb "Nerve" of a Hat Seeker. "Oh, but the 'nerve' of some women is worth a fortune to them!" groaned a girl at luncheon in a department store "I've been trying to get a hat. Upstairs in the millinery department I tried on hats until my arms ached pinning them on, and the saleswoman got purple with rage because none suited me. In walked a grenadier sort of woman, with a scared looking maid carrying a big paper bag. This woman sniffed around, turned hats upside down and almost inside out and finally looked over the untrimmed shapes She picked out one. Drawing a chair before the biggest mirror in the place bow in another place. the maid hold a trimmed hat while she copied it! The attendants seemed fascinated, for no one said a word. Huxley and Lewes,

Here is an anecdote once related by Herbert Spencer-who, by the way, was rather heavy in hand when he undertook to play story teller. Apropos of Huxley's humor he described a dinner of distinguished authors;

Over their cigarettes they fell to discussing their various methods of commencing to write. One said he wrote and wrote, tore up, then wrote again, and so on.

George Lewes, who was present, looked surprised, and then cried out: "Oh, I'm not like that! I commence to write at once, directly the pen is in my hand. In fact, I boil at a low temperature."

"Indeed," cut in Mr. Huxley, "that is very interesting, for, as you know, to boil at a low temperature implies a vacuum in the upper region." Lewes himself was the first to lead the shout of laughter which of course greeted this clever repartee.

The Trap Shot. Trap shooting has made America a land of straight shooters, and no country in the world can compare with the United States in shooting. Gun clubs in America are directly responsible for that reputation which Uncle Sam so proudly bears. By constant practice at inanimate targets the American unconsciously prepares himself for his country's call to arms. Gun clubs are really the outcome of the abundance of live game in America. The average business man loves to tread the woods in search of live game, but usually his time to go on these hunting trips is D., 1909. limited to perhaps once a year, and during the interval he has lost his "shooting eye." He needed practice to keep his eye keyed up properly, and in order to get practice at home during spare moments he organized the gun club, where between hours he could get all the practice he needed-Recrea-
